Women's History
Month - Appellate
Judges

In celebrating Women's History Month in March, the following article provides biographical information on the women justices/judges who sat and who are sitting on the Pennsylvania Appellate Courts: Supreme Court (9), Superior Court (22), and Commonwealth Court (15). There are a total of forty women who served on the three courts. Sandra Schultz Newman served on Commonwealth and Supreme Courts; Debra Todd, Joan Melvin, Christine Donohue, and Sally Munday served on the Superior and Supreme Courts. One family relationship is the mother-daughter service of Phyllis Beck and her daughter, Alice Dubow, on the Superior Court. Former ACLL Director, Joel Fishman compiled this list.
